ORDER RE DISCOVERY DISPUTE

On October 5, 2017, the parties appeared telephonically for a conference regarding the parties' discovery dispute. The dispute was summarized by both parties in written submissions which the court has duly considered. Appearing by telephone were Defendants' counsel, Josie Lewis, and Plaintiffs' counsel, Bryan Beckerman and David Malinowski. As a result of the discussions therein, the parties agreed that Defendants Infinity Homescapes, LLC, Jamey Woodson and Josie Lewis, would consent to an audit to be conducted as soon as possible, preferably in the next week, and that Defendants will produce all documents at the offices of Plaintiffs' counsel for copying at Plaintiffs' expense within the same timeframe. Lewis argued that certain documents requested were irrelevant, but the court overruled that argument and found that all of the documents discussed were relevant and should be produced. The court cautioned Lewis that her failure to cooperate in the discovery ordered would be grounds for immediate sanctions. Also, the court advised the parties that any further discovery disputes will be referred to the assigned Magistrate Judge.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
